

PRESENTATIONS OF THE CONFERENCE

„NEW IDEAS AND NEW GENERATIONS OF REGIONAL POLICY IN EASTERN EUROPE”

PÉCS, HOTEL PALATINUS, 7-8 APRIL 2016

ORGANISED BY THE INSTITUTE FOR REGIONAL STUDIES
CENTRE FOR ECONOMIC AND REGIONAL STUDIES
HUNGARIAN ACADEMY OF SCIENCES

SUPPORTED BY

Plenary session
	Bartók Room
	chair: Ilona Pálné Kovács
Simin Davoudi: Resilient territories and territorial cohesion: different origins, same destination
Dominic Stead: Territorial governance in Europe: Same policy issues, different instruments
Gabriel Bădescu: Democratic citizenship and social polarization: evidence from mezo-level contexts and policy implications
Giancarlo Cotella: European Union territorial governance: understanding Europeanization

From globally-ranked metropolises to rural ghettos: the changing patterns of socio-spatial inequalities across East Central Europe

Bartók Room

chair: Erika Nagy

Márton Czirfusz: Inequalities as challenges for spatial policies

Norbert Immanuel Petrovici: The Regional Economic Geography of Romania: The Spatiality of Dependent Neoliberalism after the Great Recession

Zsuzsanna Pósfai: Inequalities of CEE housing markets in a global context

Krzysztof Gwosdz: Divergent paths of socio-economic development in the old industrial region of Katowice, Poland

Drăgan Magdalena: Amenity migration in the Apuseni Mountains

chair: Márton Czirfusz

Lucie Trlifajová: Controlling the Unwanted: Zero Tolerance Policies in Northern Bohemia

Gergely Olt: Gentrification, conflict management and the post-communist context – the cases of inner city neighbourhoods in Budapest

András Vigvári: At the gates of Budapest? The role of „Hős utca” in the migration process between the capital city and countryside in Hungary

chair: Tünde Virág

Jakob Hurre: Cheap living on the countryside? How does the de-urbanization of Roma poverty affect household incomes?

Zaiga Krišjāne: Changing sociodemographic characteristics of the inhabitants in rural peripheries in Latvia

Erika Nagy: Consumption across borders – Understanding marginalization as a multiscalar process

Sevinç Bahar Yenigül: Rural Gentrification: Middle class' migration from urban to rural areas

Gábor Pirisi: Degradation due to outmigration – shrinking human capital in Hungarian small towns

Liga Feldmane: The portrait of immigrant in the secondary city: the case of Jelgava

Challenges and specialties of the cohesion policy in Eastern Europe

Nádor I. Room

chair: Zoltán Gál

Wolfgang Streitenberger: Sustainable urban development in the new EU-Cohesion Policy 2014-2020

Balázs Kotosz – Imre Lengyel: Growth and convergence in the NUTS 3 regions of V4 countries: an econometric evidence

Judit Kálmán: Public and Private Resources for Regional Development in the Least-Developed, Most Deprived Micro-Regions in Hungary

László Csák: Spatial turn in Romania: newcomers and future challenges

Magdolna Sass: The electronics industry of the European Union: New Member States, Mediterranean countries and "core-EU" after the crisis

Zoltán Gál: Future of CEE: Growth and catching-up models are revisited

Hunor Bajtalan: What could we've done differently? Lessons from the 2007–2013 MFF in Romania

Gergely Tagai: Societal challenges after the economic crisis in East Central Europe

Éva Szügyi: Regional development of Serbia

Balázs Forman: The New Regional Policy in less developed and/or peripheral regions

Tamara Maričić – Slavka Zeković – Miodrag Vujošević: Serbia's long and thorny voyage to the EU

Cristina Lincaru – Speranta Pirciog – Draga Atanasiu: Sketch of a System of Monitoring and Alert system of the Risk of Unemployment at NUTS 3 level based on local variation profile of registered unemployment at local level – Romanian case

Zsuzsanna Márkusné Zsibók: Long-term regional economic forecast for Hungary: macro modeling and regional downscaling

Regional aspects of new environmental paradigm I.

Salon 1.

chair: Viktor Varjú

Naja Marot: Central and South-Eastern European regions facing new challenges – do new environmental paradigms mind the borders?

Damir Šljivac: Sustainable energy development in Europe

András Donát Kovács: Thinking about environment in a mid-size city: case study of Kecskemét

N. Aydan Sat: Foreign Capital and Urban Environment: A Case Study from Turkey

chair: András Donát Kovács

Alexander Titov - Bernadett Kovács: Assessment of sustainable growth in selected countries based on the decoupling indicator

József Lennert: Modelling land cover change in Hungary: forecasts for 2050

Jenő Zsolt Farkas - Edit Hoyk: New concept in sustainable landscape management: multifunctional agriculture vs. ecosystem services

Gábor Király: Climate change adaptation in viticulture in Hungary

Nóra Baranyai – Viktor Varjú: Adaption and mitigation: social and territorial differences of attitude in Hungary

Economic competitiveness, industrialisation, growth

Salon 2.

chair: Balázs Páger

Krisztián Koppány: Macroeconomic Impacts of the University and Industry Cooperation Centre of Győr: Some Methods of Analysis with the SZEconomy-GyőRIO model

Sergey Lisnyak: Current state of economic resilience building capacity in developing countries

Katalin Döbrönte: Possibilities of the Central-European urban network based on the location strategies of high level business service providers

Zoltán Dorogi: Get on the smart path – innovation ecosystem, smart strategy and regional co-operation

Réka Horeczki: Does exist usable and adaptable model for the small?

Éva Komlósi – Balázs Páger – László Szerb: The entrepreneurial performance of the Central and Eastern European regions

Borders and mental spaces
	Salon 2.
	chair: Péter Balogh
Radu Sageata – Mihaela Persu: Cross-Border Euro-Regions in the Lower Danube Basin Zoltán Pámer: Evaluation of cross-border cooperation programmes Çiğdem Varol – Emrah Soylemez: New Forms of Socio-Spatial Interaction in Border Regions: The Case of EU and Turkish Border Andrea Székely: Changes of mental space of border zones in Eastern Europe Péter Balogh: Changing national and geopolitical imaginaries in Hungary and beyond

Smart City, the liveable city
	Nádor II. Room
	chair: Mihály Lados
Judit Rab: Putting the cart behind the horse: outlining a smart city framework for Hungarian cities Boglárka Barsi: Evaluating and modelling smart city performance György Kukely: Smart city conceptions as a new dimension of urban planning Csaba Miklós Kovács: The Urban Infrastructure and the Quality of Residential Areas within the Metropolitan Area of Kolozsvár László Jóna: Experiences of dialogues on Smart City issues in Győr Gábor Nick – Ferenc Pongrácz: Smart collaboration measurement system Timis Minodora: New recreative places in the Cluj metropolitan area Dóra Bálint, Júlia Papp: Emerging sharing economy initiatives in the tourism sector: a case study from Pécs Gábor Dudás: Changing neighbourhoods, changing real estate – The emergence of Airb'n'b in Budapest Jurica Perko: Connected public lighting network for safer, smarter and more efficient daily life Mihály Lados: Smart City Models in Hungary

International migration processes and migrant trajectories in Eastern-Central Europe
Salon 1.
chair: Katalin Fehér / Krisztina Németh
Seher Özkazanç – Aslı Gürel Üçer: Syrian Refugees in Turkish Cities: From Conflict to Integration Nóra Kovács: Chinese children in Hungarian homes: Chinese migrants' family strategies in the light of their relations with Hungarian childminders Chris Moreh: A comparative assessment of Hungarian and Romanian migration to the United Kingdom Gabriel Troc: Transnational migration and post-socialist proletarianization in a rural Romanian province Veronika Nagy: Insider between outsiders – research positioning in the Romanian ethnoscape Katalin Fehér – Krisztina Németh: Local Patterns of Globalized Migration Flows: Some aspects of the Westward migration from South-Baranya

Human capital, creativity, social innovations in rural areas
Nádor II. Room
chair: Judit Keller
Katarzyna Zajda: Barriers to Young Female Rural Residents' Participation in Social Innovations. Voices from Poland Sylvia Michalska: Rural women - new roles, new activities Éva Máté: Transforming roles of competing low-level centres in the Hegyhát microregion Melinda Mihály: The role of community enterprises in rural development Sándor Zsolt Kovács: Financial exclusion: Roles of local banking in rural areas Raluca Perneş: Agricultural holdings in Romania: A history of land fragmentation and consolidation from interwar subsistence to contemporary land grabbing Judit Keller: Embraced by the market, torn by the state? Social economy initiatives in Hungary

Different forms of capital in regional development

Salon 2.

Salon 2.

chair: Zoltán Bajmócy

Tibor Farkas: Local development experiences and endogenous sources in selected villages

Marie-Claude Maurel: Assessing Territorial Capital in a Long-Term Perspective An empirical approach based on a local system in Baranya

Andrea Mati: The society of a housing estate in Pécs

Timothy Hagen: Exploring Predictors of Marriage in Albania: The Role of Education, Social Capital, Media Exposure, and Religiosity in the 2012 European Social Survey

Ákos Bodor: Trust and social capital

Gergely Boldizsár Megyesi: The effects of rural development on rural communities

Cecília Mezei – Péter Póla: Local resource based local economic development

