

Bulgarian Academy of Sciences
National Institute of Geophysics, Geodesy and Geography
Department of Geography

and the

Hungarian Academy of Sciences
Centre for Economic and Regional Studies
Research Group in Border and Borderlands Studies

Cordially invites you to a seminar on

BORDER RESEARCH IN BULGARIA AND HUNGARY

Speakers

Tamás Hardi (PhD in Economics, Senior Research Fellow, Head of West Hungarian Research Department, HAS CERS Institute for Regional Studies)

Asymmetries and territorial disparities in the Slovak-Hungarian cross-border mobility, with special regard to the cross-border suburbanisation of Bratislava

Szilárd Rácz (PhD in Economics, Research Fellow of Transdanubian Research Department, HAS CERS Institute for Regional Studies)

Main elements of Croatian-Hungarian relations: political, economic and urban dimensions

Nadezhda Ilieva (PhD in Human Geography, Associated Professor, NIGGG – BAS, Department of Geography)

Socio-Economic aspects in the development of the EU external land border territories of Bulgaria – problems and perspectives

Boris Kazakov (PhD in Human Geography, Assistant Professor, NIGGG – BAS, Department of Geography)

Contemporary socio-demographic development and problems of the Danubian border municipalities in Bulgaria

Monday, 1st October 2018 8:00 am

NIGGG – BAS, Department of Geography
(Building 3, Room 101)