Dear colleagues,

I share your immense sadness with the death of Gyorgy Enyedi.
Gyorgy Enyedi was a gentlemen in social sciences, knowing how to promote news fields of research, new types of organisations inside the institutional frameworks, how to combine inside and outside owing to his personal international experience and sensibility.
I lose a friend who gave me the passion for Central Europe.
What sadness!

Violette Rey

I am sorry not to be present at Farkasreti cemetery on October 8, but I shall be there in my mind.
